The Football Season

Captain Mitchell Fish

By MALCOLM H. VON SALTZA

The football team, under the able coaching of Mr. Sager and three assistants, Mr. Koslowski, Mr. Murphy, and Mr. Palmer, enjoyed a very successful season this year. Of the seven games played, there were four victories, two defeats, and a tie.

With the former "A" squad merged into the varsity, and with eight returning lettermen, the potentials of a fine team were present from the beginning. The backfield, having five of these lettermen, showed itself superior to the line in the early games; but as the season progressed, the line improved greatly, doing an excellent job in the last two games.

In the absence of last season's captain-elect, Robert Sewell, now serving in the army, Mitchell Fish was elected captain. During the entire season his playing was an example for the rest of the team.

After two weeks of hard practice the team journeyed to Reading on October 2 to play the Reading High School. In a very even game Reading scored in the second period and added the point. With six minutes to play in the last quarter, the Governors scored when Bots Young slashed through tackle. Then Jim Waugh recovered a fumble and lateraled to Young who raced across for the winning six points. Jim Waugh's quick thinking was the outstanding and winning factor of the game.

The following Saturday found the Governors facing Middlesex. In this game the team was outfought, and the line, seeming to lack sufficient charge, was penetrated repeatedly by the Middlesex backs. The final score found Middlesex the victors by a 14-0 score. Charlie Ward and Allen Sikes excelled for the Governors.

In the first home game the team rallied from the previous defeat to fight its way to a 13-0 victory over a rather weak Kimball Union team. The first period saw a long pass from Young to Ward bring the first score. Bill Hale's sweep around end and Jim Waugh's conversion soon after ended the scoring. In this game the whole team showed the drive and ability which distinguishes a superior eleven.

Morse Field was again the scene of a bitter contest when the Red and White clashed with the Milton Academy team on October 23. A strong Milton team intercepted a pass early in the game and drove across the Governors' goal line a few plays later. Again in the third quarter Milton tallied on a pass. The fine work of Captain Mitch Fish, Andy Cushing, and Gordon Hoyt highlighted the Governors' play.

The fifth game, a see-saw battle with Thayer, resulted in a 0-0 deadlock. The first half saw a midfield fight in which neither team threatened. However, in the second half both teams struck into enemy territory. Thayer, breaking through the tackle positions repeatedly, twice reached the 30-yard line before they were halted. With Young firing passes to Fish and Ward, the Governors began to move the ball into Thayer's territory in the closing minutes.

In the next-to-last and best game of the season the Governors toppled an undefeated Moses Brown team in a thrilling contest. Taking advantage of their opponents' over-confidence, the Red and White early recovered a fumble, and with Rem Clark carrying, pushed the ball over. Clark and Cushing completed the other two touchdowns on passes from Waugh, and Allan Parker's two conversions raised the score to twenty points.

But twice the shifty running of the Moses Brown captain was responsible for touchdowns, thus making the score 20-13. Both teams displayed effective offensives coupled with hard blocking and running.

The final game of the season, instead of being played against Deerfield, was this year with Tabor. After tying the game up at 6-6 in the first half, the two teams battled until with five minutes remaining Bots Young rifled a pass to Clark in the end zone. The final score stood 13-6.

In his annual account at the Christmas Dinner, Mr. Sager commented on the excellent spirit, mounting strength, and drive of the team through the season. He also announced the election of B. Botsford Young, Jr., for two years a letterman, as captain of football for the 1944 season.

The Soccer Season

By WILSON C. KENT

This year particularly, the coaches, Mr. Howard J. Navins and Mr. Benjamin J. Stone, deserve a great deal of credit for developing a fine team despite the lack of experienced players. This handicap was overcome only by the untiring attention and patience of the two men and the excellent spirit displayed.

Unfortunately, merely four lettermen returned and from that small nucleus a squad was produced and entered into its first game against a strong Harvard V-12 unit. Samuel Goodrich Waugh was elected captain a few weeks before and throughout the season sparked the team with his calm, determined attitude. The first game was lost in an overtime one to nothing (1-0), but the continual drive before a better team pleased the coaches to such an extent that the defeat was not felt.

The next week the Governors lost again to Phillips Academy at Andover two to nothing (2-0) in a hard-fought battle. Bill McKenna was the outstanding player and the main reason Andover could only score twice.

Coming back from two defeats, the following week was spent in recovering confidence, and the boys were rewarded that Saturday with a complete four to nothing (4-0) win over Belmont High. Captain Waugh as usual played his habitual best, scoring two of the goals, while his younger brother netted one.

In the next two games the Governors were defeated by Watertown High and Phillips Exeter Academy, strangely enough both were on home ground. In the Watertown tilt the match was extremely exciting because the game was not settled until the closing minutes when a fast break by the visitors netted a clean goal to win three to two.

In the Exeter match, an accidental kick by Fullback Kent of the Governors opened the scoring for the Red and Gray, enabling them to gain points continually until the final reading was five to nothing (5-0). The forward line led by Captain Waugh and Dick Haas harassed the enemy time and again, but to no avail.

Milton Academy was defeated in the next game by a two to nothing (2-0) score, and this victory aided the Governors to gain lost confidence and to prove their skill the following week by overrunning a strong Tabor team two to nothing (2-0). This last game with Tabor cannot be described with any due justice, because the beauty of a fine team's passing and continual scrap will not fit upon paper. Instead it remains in the heart of the players and the persons who watched the Red and White booters at the peak of their playing ability.

The Hockey Season

Captain William H. McKenna

By WILLIAM H. McKENNA

This year's hockey team, captained by Bill McKenna and coached by Mr. A. Macdonald Murphy and Mr. John A. Koslowski, experienced the best season the sport has had at Governor Dummer in many years. The Governors had a poor start at the annual Private School Hockey Conference, where they defeated only the Rivers School while losing to St. Mark's and Milton. Once the season started, however, the team formed into a hard-skating sextet.

The regular season opened with a game at Middlesex, the winner of the vacation conference. The Red and White pressed hard and took a one-to-nothing lead in the first period; however, the home team came back in the second stanza to take the lead. Bots Young's solo dash in the last period was not enough to equalize the game as Middlesex scored twice more. In the next game the Governors defeated Brooks School 3-0, and in the third game they lost to Milton 3-2 in spite of Ben Pearson's many spectacular saves in the goal.

The team hit its stride in the first home game when they met and defeated Kimball Union Academy 6-3 in a very fast-moving game. The whole first line, consisting of Mitch Fish, Bots Young, and Paul Withington showed up very well, tallying all six points. Once gaining the lead in the first period, the Governors were never headed, although Kimball Union Academy tied the game at 3-all in the second stanza.

Thayer Academy and Dover High School were the last two victims for the Red and White, and they fell by the scores of 4-2 and 3-0. Mitch Fish played very well at his left wing position and teamed up with his mates for many of the scores. Bill Hale played a steady game throughout the year on defense where he broke up many of the opponents' rushes with hard body cheeks.

At the close of the season Mr. Murphy stated that as a team this was the best he has coached in many seasons. He also announced that William J. Hale would be captain of next year's team; and he presented the Herrick-Randall Hockey Trophy to Captain William H. McKenna.

The Basketball Season

By GEORGE A. POLLIN, JR.

At the beginning of the 1944 basketball season Coach Howard J. Navins felt that he was exceptionally fortunate in having four lettermen returning from the previous season. As opposed to the situation of the year before, when he had not a single returning veteran and had to develop an entirely new team, the four who returned for the 1944 season provided a solid base on which to build his expectations for the year.

The four veterans, Nick Martin, Jim Waugh, Rem Clark, and Stanley Weil turned in outstanding performances throughout the year and made possible a record of six games won and six games lost, although the Governors played a more difficult schedule than in the preceding year. Several teams appeared on the list of opponents for the first time, among them strong teams from the Deering High School of Portland, Lynn English High School, and the Salem Air Base.

As is the custom, the team began practicing after evening study hall during the three weeks before the Christmas recess. In this way Mr. Navins was able to cut the squad and begin practice in earnest as soon as the boys returned from vacation.

A thrilling game against the Story High School team of Manchester opened the season on January 15. It was touch and go from the opening whistle, and at the end of the last quarter the score was tied. In the overtime the strong Manchester five made a quick basket, and the Governors were nosed out by two points.

Aroused to new efforts, the Governors came back strongly the next week to take the first game with the Reading High School team by a respectable margin; but they were unable to gain their revenge and dropped a second game to Story High at Manchester.

In what was probably their best game of the season, the Governors were faced by an expert team of very experienced players representing the Salem Air Base. The men on that team had gained their experience on school and college teams from many sections of the country; consequently the game was one of the most thrilling played at Governor Dummer for a long time. Although it was evident that they were contending with a team that had a great advantage over them, the Governors fought a game struggle that continued throughout the very last minutes of the game.

The Wrestling Season

Captain Alan H. Welch

By PAUL W. MULLEN

The wrestling squad, coached by Mr. Orren B. McKnight, assisted by Mr. Sager, experienced extremely strong opposition this season and won, as a result, only the last of five wrestling meets.

Using the three returning lettermen, Bob Adams, Alan Welch, and Hall Cushman, as a nucleus for this year's team, Mr. McKnight had, by the beginning of actual competition, a team that was ready to supply plenty of determination in place of the experience that it lacked in most weights.

Alan Welch was elected captain, and the team, consisting of Bob Adams, 121 pounds; Dennis Andersen, 145; Bill Campbell, 175; Hall Cushman, 155; Jim Eaton, 165; Sam Finlay, 135; Miguel Ortega, 128; Frank Ring, 135; Malcolm von Saltza, unlimited; and Bob Waugh, 128; faced Roxbury Latin School on January 29. Our wrestlers lost this match 22-3, Ortega winning the only points for the Governors.

At Exeter, the following week, the team lost to the Exeter wrestlers 28-6, with Adams and von Saltza earning our share of the score.

Milton, possessing one of the strongest preparatory school wrestling teams in the country, met the Governors in the Lang Gymnasium on February 12. Milton secured a decisive victory, 33-2; Bill Campbell earned a draw in the 175-pound class, getting the Governors' only points.

At Andover, the Governors lost their fourth successive meet, 28-0. The matches were well contested and hard fought, but the experienced Phillips team held the advantage throughout the entire meet.

In the last meet, at Tabor Academy, the Governors scored a decisive victory of 22-10. Adams and von Saltza won their matches by falls; Ortega, Finlay, Andersen, and Campbell won by decisions, and Hall Cushman and Jim Eaton lost by falls.

Although the Governors lost four meets and won only a single triumph, the coaches were well pleased with the team. In other years the presence of one of two star wrestlers often brought victories which concealed glaring weak spots in the line-up. This year's team lacked the stars; but it also lacked the weak spots. All matches in every meet were closely contested; many of them went into over-time periods. And to the spectators it often seemed that the Governors were not nearly so decisively beaten as the team score indicated.

The Glee Club

By JOHN T. SCOTT

Due to transportation difficulties, the Glee Club schedule was somewhat reduced from that of previous years. There were three joint concerts planned as well as the usual Commencement Concert. In addition to these a concert was arranged at Danvers High School and also one at Sanders Theatre, Harvard University, in which the Glee Club united with similar organizations from Dana Hall, the Walnut Hill School, and Phillips Academy of Andover, to present Faure's Requiem Mass."

One of the things that contributed greatly to making this season a success was the fact that among the Club's repertoire was The Great Armored Corps. This march was written by Mrs. Patton for her husband, Lieutenant General George Smith Patton, Jr., who is in command of the Seventh American Army in the Mediterranean Area. Mrs. Patton was present at the Danvers Concert, where she made a short speech about the march. Governor Dummer was the first male chorus to present this piece, which not only has striking vocal parts, but also an equally impressive piano accompaniment for four hands.

Probably the most notable event of the season was the concert at Sanders Theatre. At that time the combined clubs of the four participating schools sang Faure's Requiem Mass. The presentation of this number was a laudable achievement, since it is a difficult piece requiring much time in preparation. The Governor Dummer club had first sung the entire Mass with the Walnut Hill School; that concert was such a success that another one was then arranged with the other two schools. The latter concert was the first of its type involving four schools in the history of the club and was indeed the outstanding achievement of the Glee Club in the past few years from a musical standpoint.

Among other numbers which appeared on the season's program were: Miserere by Allegri, Divine Praise by Bortniansky, Let Us Now Praise Famous Men by Williams, Casey Jones arranged by Lawton, Musical Trust by Clokey, choruses from Princess Ida and the Gondoliers by Sullivan, Stenka Razin, a Russian folk song, and the Finale of Act I from Pirates of Penzance by Sullivan.

The soloists this year were Irvine Williamson and J. Hall Cushman. At the beginning of the year J. Hall Cushman was elected president of the club.

The Governor Dummer Chapter of the Cum Laude Society received its charter on February 10, 1934. The purpose of the society is to promote scholarship and to recognize scholastic achievement. In secondary schools its function is, therefore, comparable to that of the Phi Beta Kappa Society in colleges.

The by-laws of the society state that to be eligible for election a student must attain a minimum standing of eighty percent during his senior year and must stand in the upper fifth of his class. A three-fourths vote of the faculty members is necessary for election; and the members are pledged to consider each candidate's record during the earlier years of his secondary school work, his diligence, particular abilities or deficiencies, and the nature and number of the courses on which his average is based.

This year the annual initiation banquet was held on Friday evening, May 19. Dr. Frank Sweeney, Superintendent of the Newburyport schools, was the speaker.

Benjamin Barnes Brewster

Presented by the Reverend Glenn Tilley Morse to that member of the graduating class whose record in all respects meets with the highest approval of the faculty.

THE MASTER'S PRIZE

Henry William Kelly

Presented by Mrs. Edward A. Eames to that senior who, by his unselfishness and sportsmanship, has best exemplified the spirit of the school.

THE THORNDIKE HILTON CUP

Lloyd Lewis Seligman

Presented by the Class of 1919 in memory of their classmate, Thorndike Hilton, to the ranking student in the graduating class.

RICHARD HAWES FRANCIS SCHOLARSHIP

Harold Oberlander Leinbach

Awarded to a senior of high character, who has made substantial intellectual progress and who has demonstrated a spirit of cooperation and helpfulness during his school life.

HARVARD ALUMNI PRIZE

Francis Woodward Martin

WASHINGTON AND FRANKLIN MEDAL

Donald Edward Breckenridge, Jr.

Presented by the Massachusetts Society of the Sons of the American Revolution for excellence in the study of United States History.

SPECIAL PRIZE

To Philip Nicholas Sawyer of Cambridge. Outstanding both in scholarship and athletics, Phil Sawyer is one of the most enthusiastic, unselfish, and hard-working members of the senior class. He is the sort of boy for whom special prizes were invented.

To Peter Shepard Morgan of Worcester, truck driver, storekeeper, bell ringer, manager of managers, Peter has also found time this year to raise his grades. No boy has more common sense and school loyalty than Peter Morgan, and no boy more deserves a special prize.

To Charles Haig Zoolalian of Newburyport, who, coming to us for only one year as a day student, has nevertheless won our respect by virtue of hard work and strength of character.

To Michael Francis Twomey of Newbury—another day student who knows how to work. Whether Rocky is on the bottom of the football pile, in the middle of a conga line or at the front of a classroom, his good humor and ready wit never fail to enliven the day.

Murray Shipley Munroe of Delray Beach, Florida, has already received a prize for studying history, but he deserves another for making it. Unable last year to win his letter in any sport, he has this year played on three school teams, and broken up more than one baseball game with his bat. To Murray Monroe for "coming through in the pinches."

To John Whitney of Boston we are awarding a special prize because he is one of the most gentlemanly, and, more especially, one of the hardest working boys in the school.

To David Holmes Mason of Chelmsford, a senior who in one year has won the reputation of being a hard-working scholar, an all-around athlete, and a worthwhile boy.

Richard Gartley Williamson of Augusta, Maine. A painstaking and penetrating student, of the faculty and of his fellow men, "Happy" has found time in addition to serve as captain of football and president of the Glee Club. He is the last in the long line of Williamson brothers, and he has added lustre to the family name. We respect Dick for his intelligence, we like him for his good nature and generosity, and we do not wish to part with him.

THE GOODWIN ATHLETIC PRIZE

Donald Edward Breckenridge, Jr.

Presented by Mr. Fred H. Goodwin of the Class of 1916 for the best all-around athletic record of the year.
